A thread of the tragic events at Travis Scott's #AstroWorldFest last night. <https://t.co/qH9mRslgBK>

At least 8 confirmed fatalities, but people that were present in the festival claim that there were many more <https://t.co/2MygKYZ8Q4>

There was an ambulance in the middle of the crowd trying to help people but it was struggling to get through <https://t.co/H7WXCyew9T>

People were really on top of the ambulance having the time of their lives while other were losing theirs... <https://t.co/1Mdi0XUw2o>

People jumping on top of police cars who were trying to get unconscious people out of the crowd <https://t.co/m2o9LcPsiW>

Multiple ambulances and police cars arrived at the Festival to respond <https://t.co/OEaGYjahiF>

Fans were trying to stop the show by calling out but nothing was done <https://t.co/rv6OEUY2K7>

People even rushed the camera men, and they still continued the show while people were dying #ASTROWORLDFest <https://t.co/9u6NqFF03M>

TW! Please proceed with caution as there's very sensitive footage.

Staff trying to bring a person back to consciousness <https://t.co/T0eCmj2saW>

TW! Disturbing footage of the AstroWorld Tour.

We were barricaded against metal gates and security did not respond to demands for help and the amount of people not being able to breathe due to crowd pushing in all directions. I dont know how im alive and it took me twenty minutes into the set to get out. I was fighting for my life. Yes I've seen dead children and women being transported. I told security people were dying and did not believe me and reassured me that's not the case (bull shit).

getting people out but I know at least 2 individuals had been pulseless for 15 minutes minimum before they got on a stretcher.

I'm a trained medic. I was doing cpr on a girl as drake came was coming on with Travis. Two "medical staff" came over to help. They were like deer in headlights. They had no fuckin clue what they were doing. One of them straight up left; The other "medic" was screaming if anyone else knew CPR. The two that came over had no ambu bag, no gloves, no AED, nothing. I had the girls friend do mouth to mouth while the dumbass medic was just standing there. I'm yelling for an AED, even a damn CPR pocket mask. They eventually get a backboard And start to put her on backwards (feet at the narrow end). I call the guy an idiot and flip it over. Finally we get her on a backboard, cops come over and rip me off her. They pick the backboard up only to drop her on her face. I was so incredibly mad. I watched a girl die in front of me all because these "medics" were so ill prepared. I'd encourage anyone here to open lawsuits against this Cactus Jack/ astroworld bullshit. So sad.

They really let in a 10 year old. The staff and the family. <https://t.co/cN5Jfg9oYt>

AstroWorld Fest's statement: <https://t.co/fEjuMYFUO4>

OUR HEARTS ARE WITH THE ASTROWORLD FESTIVAL FAMILY TONIGHT - ESPECIALLY THOSE WE LOST AND THEIR LOVED ONES.

WE ARE FOCUSED ON SUPPORTING LOCAL OFFICIALS HOWEVER WE CAN.
WITH THAT IN MIND THE FESTIVAL WILL NO LONGER BE HELD ON SATURDAY.

AS AUTHORITIES MENTIONED IN THEIR PRESS CONFERENCE EARLIER, THEY ARE LOOKING INTO THE SERIES OF CARDIAC ARRESTS THAT TOOK PLACE.
IF YOU HAVE ANY RELEVANT INFORMATION ON THIS, PLEASE REACH OUT TO @HOUSTONPOLICE.

THANK YOU TO OUR PARTNERS AT THE HOUSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT,
FIRE DEPARTMENT, AND NRG PARK FOR THEIR RESPONSE AND SUPPORT.

I just left astroworld festival and let me say this. as someone who has been to every astro fest there's been <sup>1/2</sup> this was completely different. it was awful. I passed out because people were pushing up against me so much that I couldn't breathe. Sam got people to apparently crowd surf my unconscious body to the security guard and I got carried to a little section behind GA and put down on a stool thing. when I woke up I had a water bottle in my lap and had no clue what had happened.

When I stood up I looked around and people were getting carried out with eyes rolled back into their heads by security, bleeding from their nose and mouth. I yelled "has ANYBODY checked a pulse?" the security guard, frantic, asked me to please help him. I checked two people and one did not have a pulse. I told them I was an ICU nurse and then another security guard, hearing that, said "please come help us."

He takes me to the part of the crowd behind GA where I see 3 bodies sprawled out and people who I assume were medics/medical staff doing CPR. i immediately see that there is not enough medics for this so I relieve one medic of CPR. I ask where the ambu bag is, where the AED is, where the stretcher and ambulance is, where tf any shit is and they said essentially there is none. there's one ambu bag, one stretcher and one AED for 2... now 4... people

I ask where the ambu bag is, where the AED is, where the stretcher and ambulance is, where tf any shit is and they said essentially there is none. there's one ambu bag, one stretcher and one AED for 3 - now 4 - people who are pulseless and blue. People from the crowd were trying to help. teenagers are doing CPR trying to help but they're doing it incorrectly, then I see there's other people doing CPR on people who still have a pulse bc nobody has done a pulse check. it was an absolute shit show. I lost Sam for I don't even know how long but for the remainder of the concert I was doing compressions, bagging and helping move people to stretchers and checking pulses on new bodies as they got crowd-surfed to where we were. people were trampled, crushed. there was no cell service to call for more help. People were begging the crew operating the stage lights and stuff around us to stop the concert and they wouldn't. I am so disappointed and sad. Finally cops showed up with more stretchers and started getting people out but I know at least 2 individuals had been pulseless for 15 minutes minimum before they got on a stretcher.

Travis Scott was a 100% aware of people dying and he knew about the ambulance in the crowd, but the show continued

<https://t.co/VgNHIUgROz>

I think it's time he's held accountable for encouraging this disgusting behaviour during his shows.

Travi$ Scott Got Arrested After His Lollapalooza Act for Trying to Make His Fans Go Crazy

By Sean Fitz-Gerald

Travis Scott was arrested by Chicago police

Saturday after he attempted to incite the crowd

And yes he could have done something, there's no excuse. Here's an example <https://t.co/DI1AYJ3cYW>

It's just weird behaviour, especially when your audience is predominately children. <https://t.co/ZvAAcWqoB7>

This is so disturbing to watch <https://t.co/9gJmEsS1Ru>

More disturbing footage TW <https://t.co/HsyA8IB6jb>

This is so scary, please everyone stay safe in the future <https://t.co/l24kGFSWPS>

And it's not just Travis who should be held accountable, everyone needs to take the responsibility to at least not trample others and try to help them. <https://t.co/45fNECA8Ne> people chanting "travis" and "help" and he continues the festival <https://t.co/IEvxLjjQK1>

Some people are speculating there's something more to the festival and the death but that's for whoever wishes to believe it <https://t.co/6Z3IzMtIZG>

Everyone please be very cautious of what events you attend, be safe and try to help others. Learning CPR is an essential skill because you never know when you might need it. Prayers and condolences to the families of all the victims ■ <https://t.co/luCd9AHxF9>

“Leaving your house & returning back safely is such an underrated blessing these days”

This is the type of man he is and the behaviour he encourages <https://t.co/S5I5Wat7Sw>
